Johnson, the CEO of the Boys and Girls Club of Dane County, recruited Metcalfe, who owns Metcalfe's Market, and Green, the director of the Salvation Army Community Center and the Mentoring Positives program for the project.

Their experiences produced the most-read story of the week on captimes.com.

Johnson said he was "blown away by the generosity of the people in this community." In the course of the three days the group met a family of five living in a car and later helped them get a permanent place to live.

For the second straight week, our photo gallery of the Madison area's 11 best pizzas had the most views.

Also getting attention last week: Themes from Gov. Scott Walker's book, support for marijuana legalization and Wisconsin's job numbers.
